Cultural Safety Advice:

Cultural safety is fostered within environments that are spiritually, socially, emotionally, and physically safe, and that do not impose upon a person's identity or deny their needs. It is cultivated through acts of shared respect, meaning, knowledge, and the collective experience of learning together with these attributes and affordances in place (AITSL, 2022b; Williams, 1999).

Our cultural safety framework in the Museum and Collections Learning Team is informed by the Commission for Children and Young People (Victorian Government, 2023) Child Safety Standard 1 that states:

"Organisations establish a culturally safe environment in which the diverse and unique identities and experiences of Aboriginal children and young people are respected and valued"

(Commission for Children and Young People, 2023).

All teachers are advised to review the Coordinating Teacher Responsibilities document, and Cultural Safety information located on page 13, Booklet 1 resource, as a guide for scaffolding students' safety and strategies to cultivate it.

About 65,000 Years: A Short History of Australian Art

65,000 Years: A Short History of Australian Art has been curated in consultation with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander artists and custodians and strives to reveal the ingenuity and excellence of First People's art which is the foundation of this continent's great art history.

In respect to this overarching focus, we advise the exhibition is also about truth-telling. The works of art, cultural objects, and curation of these speak to the wrongly commenced history of Australia, which encompasses the dispossession of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples' land, disavowal of their rights and freedoms, and the impact colonial violence and oppression has on the lives of First Peoples who endure the denial of this history.

For societies with shared histories of violence or injustice, truth-telling about the past is essential for overcoming division and achieving genuine democratic and prosperous outcomes for all citizens. Australian curricula frameworks recognise the importance of truth-telling, emphasising the critical role of education for building comprehensive understanding of the rich tapestry of truth that comprises Australia's history.

We advise all viewers that there are works in this exhibition and education resources that contain instances of violence and references to the Australian Wars that may cause distress. We would also like to advise Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander viewers that this exhibition and its education resources feature the names, images and works of people who have died.

Whether engaging onsite or online, the following contains important information for all educators on fostering and upholding cultural safety while coming to know, hear, and understand Indigenous Knowledge showcased in the exhibition.

Content Warning:

65,000 Years: A Short History of Australian Art has been curated in consultation with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander artists and custodians. Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander viewers are advised that the exhibition features the names, images and work of people who have died.

The exhibition contains references to dispossession, the Australian Wars, violence, massacres, child removal, missionisation, incarceration, and deaths in custody. Some works in the exhibition contain derogatory images or titles with outdated terminology. These do not reflect the University's viewpoint, but rather, the social attitudes and circumstances of the period or place in which they were created. The exhibition also contains offensive imagery and nudity.

Please note; Level 1 includes the Primrose Potter Studio which is dedicated to exploring Scientific Racism at the University of Melbourne and Beyond. This part of the exhibition has the following content warning and is not part of the Yrs 3 - 4 tour as it is recommended for viewers under 18 years of age.

This section of the exhibition contains material relating to eugenics, 'blood-quantum' terminology, and the theft, storage, examination and trade of Indigenous ancestral remains – practices undertaken at The University and beyond.

The facilitated tour for Years 3 - 4 will focus on Connection to Country through the following themes:

- Imagining Country
- Communicating Country
- Colours of Country
- Mapping and Making with Country
- Caring for Country

The Years 3 - 4 tour will focus on art works located on Ground Level and Level 1. While travelling to each artwork across the exhibition, students will observe other artworks which explicitly explore themes of invasion, colonisation, displacement, and destruction/theft of country and culture. Artworks not included on the tour, but which students may pass, include images of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander deceased people.

The risk assessment includes the following:

- Six artworks explored in the tour for Yrs 3 - 4.

- Artworks that will be observed while travelling through the tour.
- General risk assessment issues to note.
